Obituary.

Dennis Carlton, son of J. C. Carl-ton, was born in Livingston county, Ky., Dec. 31st, 1888. Died, Nov.
24th, 1909, at 8 o'clock p. m. Just before the dawn of manhood and on the verge of a beautiful Thanksgiving day, God called for Dennis and took him from the tender and loving hands of father, mother and friends, who had cared for him during his days of suffering with typhoid fever.
For nearly thirty days he lay in bed waiting patiently for the last, and in the gloom of the shadow of death, he professed faith in Christ, and said, "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." After giving this message of consolation to his parents and friends he crossed the dark river of death, to arise no more until judgement day.

He was laid to rest in the Crayne cemetery on Nov. 25th, Thanksgiving day. A large crowd assembled at the church to take the last look at

Despair and Despondency
No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued.
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.
It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain.
It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to urge upon you as "just as good."
It is non-secret, non-alcoholic and has a record of forty years of cure.
Ask Your Neighbors. They probably know of some of its many cures.
If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper cover.
In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dennis, on earth and hear the parting words of condolence so beautifully and tenderly spoken by Revs.
W. T. Oakley and M. E. Miller.

Bro. Miller said in part, "There are three words that should be blended into one: Mother, Home and Heaven, these words are so closely allied it is hard to tell where the one begins and the other ends, each speaks volumes within themselves to the weary soul and leads to a higher and brighter life."

Like the Prodigal son, Dennis returned unto his Heavenly Father and there found safe retreat under the shadow of His wings.

We feel thou art at rest Dennis, we yield to our Creator and say,
"Thou art our God to Thee we commend our spirits."
